He further reported that Mr. Pavlovich has been advised that Metropolitan has made a full and complete settlement with him and expressed appreciation for his cooperation when the property was originally purchased.

Bogoljub Pavlovich expressed his desire to have a hearing to improve the terms of the settlement. He further requested an extension of time for the sale of his horses.

Tom Michali, board member of the Los Angeles Conservancy, expressed concerns about the impacts upon Union Station, an historic site, due to the construction of the Headquarters Facility, and urged the Board to delay certifying the Final EIR until these impacts have been mitigated.

41632 There being no objection, the Chair ordered the reading of the Minutes of October 10, 1995, dispensed with, a copy having been mailed to all Directors.

Vice Chairman Blake moved, seconded by Director Morris and carried, approving the foregoing Minutes as mailed.

The matters which have been removed along with consideration of the merging of the Land and Legal and Claims Committees will be further discussed at the December meeting.

41634 Chairman Foley announced he has appointed Director Wein to the Ad Hoc Committee on Agricultural Water Policy, replacing Director Green who has resigned from that committee.

41635 The General Counsel's letters, each dated October 16, 1995, were presented, transmitting the credentials evidencing the reappointments by San Diego County Water Authority of Dale Mason, Joseph Parker, and Mark Watton as three of its representatives on Metropolitan's Board for a four-year term ending December 31, 1998.

41639 General Manager Wodraska gave a video tape viewing of the new Visitors Center at the Eastside Reservoir Project, housing a model archaeological dig to provide an historical background of the area to visitors. On that video, he and the Chiefs described the six key elements of the regional water supply reliability goal, as follows:

Chief Engineer Snyder stated that Metropolitan remains committed to completing the Eastside Reservoir Project with water deliveries to storage commencing in 1999.

Deputy General Manager Quinn reported that one of the major issues being discussed with the member agency managers is the rate refinement issue. To assist in the ongoing discussions and reach a resolution that will protect the interests of all the agencies, there will be a mediator to assist in the negotiation process. He pointed out that in December, the staff will be seeking direction from the Board on this issue.

Deputy General Manager Horne reported on some of the activities relating to Bay-Delta, advising that the key item on the agenda for the November 21 meeting of the Bay-Delta Political Advisory Committee will be a review of Senate Bill 900 (Costa). Re: Today's Executive Committee and Board Meetings

Dear Fellow Board Members:

I regret that I am unable to attend today's Executive Committee and Board meetings. Given the importance of certain of the issues on today's agenda, I have requested my Delegation to share these thoughts with you so that they may be made a part of the record.

Yesterday, we received two staff reports and one recommendation which, taken together, offer us a mirror into which we must look and ask ourselves, what will be the future of the Metropolitan Water District? I am referring to Board Items 8-2 Integrated Resources Plan Implementation Policies, and Pending 10-1, Adoption of Policy Principles for Transporting (Wheeling) Water by Metropolitan. The staff recognizes that this is an historic moment when it says,

"A discussion of 'unbundling' of Metropolitan services raises many questions, including the definition of its future role in the Southern California water industry and the region's commitment to the Capital Improvement Plan and water management programs."

I agree!

The time is now, for our Board to deliberate the issues which have been highlighted by the San Diego/IID water transfer!

The time is now, for our Board to consider how we can work together to make this an opportunity for all of the member agencies of the MWD!

It is almost inconceivable -- indeed, I believe that it is inconceivable to many respected local and state officials -- that

Metropolitan would not strongly support a member agency's efforts, and through that member agency, its own efforts, in seeking to firm up long term water supplies.

Last month, we believed that we were on the right track when the staff recommended that we take a close look at the capital improvement plan and water management programs -- indeed, the whole IRP -- in light of the San Diego/IID water transfer opportunity. We firmly believe that this review is necessary. Instead of beginning that substantive process, however, we have been presented with a "fait accompli" in Board Memo 8-2, proposing that the Board endorse moving forward with "IRP Implementation Policies." Metropolitan's very credibility is on the line:

- Are you sure that you want to recommend the new reliability goal to your ratepayers?
- Can you really guarantee your ratepayers what the new reliability is going to cost?
- Do you believe that it is wise or even intellectually honest to "assure" your ratepayers what the future cost of water will be over the next 10 years?
- What will the cost of water be after 2005? Is there any "backloading" of rates which will cause rates to soar after this arbitrary period?
- Do you know what it means to say that we want to use our ratepayers' money to make investments to "assure national leadership" (or even "leadership")? Is this a proper standard?
- Do you really believe that the "certainty" of full Colorado River Aqueduct deliveries over the long-term future has been "reaffirmed" by MWD's planning efforts? Doesn't this claim of "certainty" fly in the face of reality as we know it?
- Etc. Etc. See 8-2.

No, we will not just be dangerously close, we will cross the line if we adopt the 8-2 "policies" as a Board of Directors: We will have substituted PR "spin" for serious, substantive water planning! We stand to embarrass ourselves at state-wide levels!

Instead of adopting 8-2, we should table the item and take the time necessary to deliberate the substantive policy issues at hand, including but not limited to discussing:

- The nature of our relationship together as member agencies of the MWD;
- The impacts of wheeling and the "unbundling" of MWD services;
