

Metropolitan Cases

Gutierrez v. Metropolitan (Los Angeles County Superior Court)

On May 16, 2023, employee Encarnacion Gutierrez filed an employment lawsuit against Metropolitan in Los Angeles County Superior Court. The complaint was served on Metropolitan on June 12. The complaint alleges five causes of action; three of which are under the California Fair Employment and Housing Act (FEHA): race/color/national origin discrimination; retaliation; and failure to prevent discrimination. The fourth is for “failure to promote” based on a violation of public policy, and the fifth cause of action is for unfair business practice under the California Unfair Competition Act.

Plaintiff alleges he was discriminated against based on his race/color/national origin and Metropolitan failed to take reasonable steps to prevent these occurrences because Metropolitan failed to promote qualified Mexican American employees, including plaintiff, to management positions.

On July 13, plaintiff filed a first amended complaint after the Legal Department informed plaintiff’s counsel that public agencies are entitled to government immunity under the Unfair Competition Act and are also immune from causes of action based upon a perceived violation of public policy. Accordingly, the lawsuit will proceed on the remaining three causes of action under FEHA. Metropolitan’s answer or other responsive pleading is due on August 14. The Legal Department is representing Metropolitan.

Zarate v. Metropolitan (Los Angeles County Superior Court)

On July 6, 2023, employee Maria Carmen Zarate filed an employment lawsuit against Metropolitan in Los Angeles County Superior Court. The complaint was served on Metropolitan on July 13. The complaint alleges five causes of action; three of which are under the California Fair Employment and Housing Act (FEHA): race/color/national origin discrimination; retaliation; and failure to prevent discrimination. The fourth is for “failure to promote” based on a violation of public policy, and the fifth cause of action is for unfair business practice under the California Unfair Competition Act.

Plaintiff alleges she was discriminated against based on her race/color/national origin, and Metropolitan failed to take reasonable steps to prevent these occurrences, because Metropolitan failed to promote her, a Mexican American employee, to a higher paying position when she was already performing the work of that position.

On July 27, plaintiff filed a first amended complaint after the Legal Department informed plaintiff’s counsel that public agencies are entitled to government immunity under the Unfair Competition Act and are also immune from causes of action based upon a perceived violation of public policy. Accordingly, the lawsuit will proceed on the remaining three causes of action under FEHA. Metropolitan’s answer or other responsive pleading is due on August 28. The Legal Department is representing Metropolitan.

Stronghold Engineering, Inc. v. Metropolitan (San Bernardino County Superior Court)
